Couldn't Afford To Advertise.

Jud Shaw sold shoes and sealing wax, and lamps, fishpoles and glue, tobacco, candies, gum, and tacks, sardines and sardines, too; dry goods and hams were in his line; he dealt in peas and beans; he kept the general store in fine, sold overalls and jeans; but Jud, somehow, he wasn't wise—"Couldn't afford to advertise".
Not that he harbored any grudge against his home town sheet; he was, as anyone might judge, a kindly man to meet; his customers he treated fair, and yet he prospered not; his goods were honest, one could swear—he simply was forgot; for Jud, somehow, he wasn't wise—"Couldn't afford to advertise".
Mail order firms from out of town, much wiser in their day, paid liberally for their renown, and gathered in the hay; their catalogues went everywhere; they advertised for trade; their name went forth trumpets blare, and, ah! the coin they made; couldn't afford, they were so wise, couldn't afford NOT to advertise.
Now Jud's stuff it was just as good; his prices were the same; the loss was ours, he simply WOULD NOT spread abroad his name; though townfolks might have much preferred in their home mast to buy of Jud Shaw they had never heard—you know the reason why, for Jud, somehow, he wasn't wise—"Couldn't afford to advertise".

Reasons!

Why you should use Cardui, the woman's tonic, for your troubles, have been shown in thousands of letters from actual users of this medicine, who speak from personal experience. If the results obtained by other women for so many years have been so uniformly good, why not give Cardui a trial?

CARDUI

The Woman's Tonic

Mrs. Mary J. Irvin, of Cullen, Va., writes: "About 11 years ago, I suffered untold misery with female trouble, bearing-down pains, headache, numbness . . . I would go for three weeks almost bent double . . . My husband went to Dr. . . for Cardui . . . After taking about two bottles I began going around and when I took three bottles I could do all my work." E-50
